MP TAKES EMAIL MISTAKE BLAME

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

THE MP representing Axminster says he takes full responsibility for the fact that a constituent's letter was circulated to news organisations by mistake.

The letter had been sent to MP Neil Parish's office by a constituent who is dissatisfied with a government-funded service provider in the constituency area.

Mr Parish's office e-mailed a press release about initiatives to help local carers last week to approximately 20 news organisations.

But a mistake resulted in the sensitive letter being attached instead of photos relating to the initiative for carers.

Festival is a record with exhibitors

THIS year's Axe Vale Festival, which took place on June 26th and 27th, featured more than 400 exhibitors — a record according to organisers.

Whilst the extra exhibitors are welcomed with open arms, there has not been a specific campaign to increase numbers.

Instead, according to festival publicity manager Margaret Spencer-Brown, it seems to be a case of show exhibitors hearing good things about the event and approaching organisers for a stand and the other way around.

Margaret also said feedback was good from visitors, both in terms of product choice and pricing.

"One lady said she had bought all her Christmas presents," Margaret recalled.

The exact number of visitors over the two days was not known at the time of going to press.

But organisers were happy with the turnout, especially as there were televised football, tennis and motor racing to compete with on the Sunday.

As with all other open air events, the weather can have a huge bearing on crowd figures.

Asked if the weather was too good this year, Margaret replied: "Some didn't stay as long because of the heat, but it didn't deter them from coming."

She also praised Ron Cross and everybody else on the festival committee for all their efforts.

A team of six volunteers, which included traffic manager Robin Cross, made sure vehicles could arrive and leave with no incident.

All six team members have undertaken training courses in line with current legislation, and Mr Cross said: "I had a sleepless week worrying about it but, to the best of my knowledge, there were no queues and no problems."

Axminster police had no log of any public order issues in relation to the festival.

• See pages 6 and 7 for photos and next week's issue for show results.

Lost phone

A WOMAN from Frome, Somerset, lost her phone whilst visiting Axminster and is appealing for the public's help to reunite her with her mobile.

Angela Mitchard, whose daughter Nancy teaches at Axe Valley College, said she was walking in South Street on Tuesday, June 22nd, between 12.30pm and 2pm, when she realised her phone had disappeared.

The mobile phone is described as a black Sony Ericsson with a 3.5 megapixel camera. Anyone who finds the phone is asked to contact Angela on 01373 465667.

Council calls on town to get thinking of ways to celebrate the jubilee

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER residents have been asked to get their thinking caps on and propose a permanent way to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in 2012.

The issue has been on Axminster Town Council's agenda for a while, and will be discussed again during the meeting on Monday, July 12th.

Councillor Jeremy Walden originally raised the issue and councillors are now seeking help from the public.

The jubilee may be two years away, but councillors want to make a decision as soon as possible to have enough time to plan and raise any money that may be required.

Councillor Walden has already thrown his hat into the ring by proposing that a greenfield area at St Mary's playing field be transferred to the town council.

The area is currently owned by a developer and leased to East Devon District Council, according to councillor Walden.

His idea is that ownership should be transferred to the town council — through what is known as Section 106 negotiations as part of the planning process — for it to create and maintain a jubilee park.

Other ideas put forward include the planting of 60 trees around the town, and the provision of a sculpture or two.

Councillors are keen to hear the views of townspeople and councillor Walden said: "There may well be street parties etcetera by other organisations but we are thinking of a permanent commemoration, and are looking for suggestions from townspeople."

Councillor Walden is a republican and therefore an unlikely promoter of a permanent commemoration.

He explained: "I'm a republican but I recognise that there are many people in the town who think that the Queen has given 60 years of dedicated service.

"It would be churlish of me to allow my own personal opinions to colour the citizens' views, which is why I suggested a permanent commemoration."

Residents with ideas are asked to submit them no later than Monday July 12th to the town council.

Mr Walden said ideas can be submitted by the usual methods of letter, e-mail, fax and phone or by attending and speaking at the public forum session of the July 12th town council meeting.

The meeting starts at 7.15pm and will be staged in The Guildhall.

Disruption at a minimum, says hospital

NHS bosses say a deep cleaning programme at Axminster Hospital has "been carefully planned to ensure minimum disruption to patients".

The deep clean is part of a rolling programme across NHS Devon's 21 community hospitals to fight infections.

As a result, there will be no in-patients for the period between June 28th and July 12th, but out-patient services will continue to operate as normal.

Jan Ingram, assistant director of health and social care for NHS Devon, said: "The deep clean programme has been carefully planned to ensure minimum disruption to patients."

An NHS spokesman added: "All other community hospitals in east and mid Devon will remain open during this period."

"The programme, which also includes maintenance and improvement works, is being implemented in addition to routine cleaning procedures in a move designed to cause as little disruption to patients as possible."

"It will also create opportunities for staff to undergo further training or gain experience in other areas."

Organisers reflect on recent olympic event as a success

YOUNGSTERS descended on Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre in Axminster for the recent staging of Axe Valley Olympics.

As previously reported, the inaugural event will be followed up with a similar one next year and a "bumper" one in 2012 — the year when the summer Olympics are to be held in London.

Reflecting on the event, Andrew Moulding of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre said: "An excellent day was enjoyed in beautiful weather for the first Axe Valley Olympics."

"Winning athletes received their gold, silver and bronze medals from mayor Ron Jones and from Josh Duffield, representing sponsors Axminster Carpets Ltd.

"Footballers were involved in coaching and football matches organised in the morning session by Jade and Nick Tregale from Millwey Rise Football Club.

"Assistance was also provided by members of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre, together with a group of young leaders from the college who played a huge part in making the event such a success.

"Thanks must also go to school sports co-ordinator Tracy Moran for all her help and the use of equipment."

Award miss for governor

A SCHOOL governor from the Axminster area didn't make it all the way in the South West Stage of The Teaching Awards.

As previously reported, Shute Community Primary School governor Alan Morbey had made it to the final of the Department for Education Award for Governor of the Year category.

He was one of three finalists but the title was one by a governor from The Five Islands School, Isles Of Scilly.

Every school in England, Wales and Northern Ireland can enter The Teaching Awards.

The awards were established by Lord Puttnam CBE in 1998 and are managed by the Teaching Awards Trust, an independent charity.

Men charged with assault

TWO men have been charged following an incident on a footpath near Stoney Lane, Axminster, on Thursday, April 22nd.

The incident involved a woman and a young child and police were called at about 3.30pm.

Two men were arrested at the time and were bailed pending further enquiries.

They have since answered bail and a 26-year-old has been charged with common assault by beating and a 43-year-old has been charged with using abusive and threatening behaviour to cause harassment.

Allotment plans are submitted to EDDC

◆ THE proposed allotment site

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

HONITON Town Council has submitted an application to create 46 allotments and a five space car park at an area close to Honiton Bottom Road.

Planning documents have been received by East Devon District Council who will make a decision in due course.

The document states: "This proposal seeks to use part of the land designated as public open space along Honiton Bottom Road as an area of allotments, comprising 46 half size allotments.

"The town council has a statutory duty to provide allotments where there is an identified need.

"A recent survey by the town council to identify such a need resulted in some 127 respondents confirming that they wanted to go on the list to have an allotment.

"The site is well placed in terms of sustainable transport needs, being particularly well placed for pedestrian access.

"It is noted that there have been objections in the past based on a misconception that all of the open space would be used, however, that is clearly not the case."

The Highways Agency has been consulted over the plans and says it has no objections in principle.

Peter Fleming, the tree warden for Honiton Town Council, has carried out an inspection of the site and has found that a common oak tree will need to be protected during any works carried out at the site.

Mill Water Special School is close to the proposed allotment site and it has also been consulted over the plan.

A spokesman for the school said: "The pupils at our school benefit greatly from gardening activities and many already visit West Hill Nurseries and Bicton College to grow produce.

"If we were able to have a small local plot of land some of our less able students would be able to further their independence and social skills, it would be an invaluable addition to their education."

However, not everyone is happy with the proposal.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Alan Kimbell, of Marker Way, Honiton, says his property adjoins the proposed allotments site and that he was not consulted over the plans.

MP apologises for blunder over letter

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

TIVERTON and Honiton MP Neil Parish has assured constituents that their correspondence will not be circulated by mistake again.

He takes full responsibility for the fact that a constituent's letter was circulated to news organisations by mistake.

A constituent, who is in dispute with a healthcentre in the constituency area, had sent the sensitive letter to Mr Parish's office.

The MP's office e-mailed a press release about initiatives to help local carers last week to approximately 20 news organisations.

But a mistake resulted in the sensitive letter being attached instead of documents relating to the initiative for carers.

When asked if constituents can write to their MP without risking their correspondence reaching a wider audience, Mr Parish said: "We will put it right.

"I'm very sorry it happened. I'm not blaming my staff.

"I take full responsibility."

He also said his team had been under some pressure and had not had an office until very recently.

He added: "I realise the seriousness of the situation. We can only apologise."

● Mr Parish recently attended a networking session with carers in the House of Commons.

The session was part of Carers' Week and Mr Parish said after the event: "It's clear that many carers are sacrificing their own lives, unable to do the little things that most of us take for granted.

"As a politician, I aim to influence and to bring about real change for carers in Tiverton and Honiton and will be raising their concerns in Westminster.

"We need to ensure that respite centres, such as the Bungalow facility at Honiton Hospital, stay open.

"I want to give carers back their lives, their health and happiness so they can carry on doing what they do best — caring."

Neighbours' fear at low-flying aircraft

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@findlenews.co.uk

A LOW-FLYING military plane had West Hill residents worrying they would have a crash site on their doorstep.

The low flying aircraft flew over the village at approximately 11.30pm on Tuesday, June 22nd.

One resident, John Davies, told Pulman's View: "It woke me up. It struck me as being extremely low and I wondered if I was going to hear a crash.

"It was very loud and very low and it alarmed me."

His neighbour, Simon Parsonson, gave an almost identical account of events, saying: "We thought it was coming down."

Living near Exeter Airport, Mr Parsonson is used to seeing planes but said he had never seen one so low in the area before.

It has since been established that the plane was on a training mission and was not in any kind of trouble.

An RAF spokesman said: "I can confirm that the aircraft your caller witnessed was likely to have been a Hercules.

"This was authorised to operate in the south west peninsula between 11pm on June 22nd and 12.55am on June 23rd.

"This aircraft was carrying out routine low-flying training and was authorised to operate down to 250ft."

Mr Parsonson agrees that the plane he saw was not lower than the authorised altitude and the RAF spokesman explained low flight policy by saying: "There is no area in the UK that is free of population that will allow us to undertake the necessary training required.

"This will mean that there will be occasions when some members of the public may be disturbed.

"This means that low-flying over built-up areas is unavoidable.

"However, there are areas that are specifically excluded.

"These include restricted airspace around civil aerodromes, glider sites, certain industrial sites and larger centres of population — generally these will be towns of over 10,000 inhabitants, although flying around the outskirts will still be witnessed."

In the sub-editor's shoes

LUCIE SIMIC

When a girl marries her lovely farmer!

WELL, it happened. A small editor fell in love and it ended with a fairytale wedding!

On a very hot and sunny Saturday, June 26th we gathered at St Peter and St Paul's church, Uplyme, to witness the joining in matrimony of Kate Erin Mew to her lovely farmer.

And what a day it was! I have been eagerly listening to every detail as Kate has organised the wedding of her dreams — whilst running the good ship Pulman's View, among everything else that she fits into her busy life — and to see the efforts of her hard work come together was amazing.

Now, as an already married woman, I know only too well how difficult and stressful it is to organise a wedding — and most of us do it with the help of caterers, wedding planners and staff at some of the lovely venues that the Pulman's View country has to offer couples getting married.

But that would have been too easy for our lady-in-charge — she chose to organise, plan, cater and design her entire day, right down to her beautiful wedding cake (which she made and iced with the help of her very talented sister-in-law).

I know I am not the only one whose blood ran cold when she first told me on a busy Monday morning that she planned to do almost everything...HERSELF.

My first reaction was to laugh, but then — once I realised she was not joking — I couldn't think of anyone else better to handle this challenge.

For Kate it has been a labour of love and I think she would agree with me when I say she has thoroughly enjoyed every moment.

And the result was truly spectacular.

Following a traditional ceremony at the church in Uplyme — given by, the recently retired, Revd Jeremy White — we then followed the newly married couple to their reception venue in Hampton, near Shute.

After a short drive up a long and winding country lane we arrived to a marquee perched on a breathtaking view of the Axe Valley, courtesy of Mr and Mrs Jon Williams — the in-laws!

The marquee looked beautiful with every detail carefully planned. The tables — aptly named after newspapers — were decorated with white tulips in vases tied with sage green ribbon.

Every guest had delicious fudge favours in little bags handmade — by the bride and a wonderful mother, Sylvie — and the tables had green and white petals strewn across them.

It was simply incredible that anyone had managed to create such a beautiful setting, let alone a busy editor!

Following a drinks reception while the couple posed for photos we were then ushered into the marquee for the speeches.

◆ THE new Mr and Mrs Matthew Williams

After a frank speech by the groom who complimented his new wife — and admitted he had only organised the generator and the toilets for the entire day — we moved onto a heartwarming speech by Kate's dad, Derek, and then the two best men had their turn.

In true wedding style it was both funny and at times close to the edge!

Following the delicious buffet — prepared by the bride, friends and family — it was time to get the party started as the newlyweds took to the dancefloor for their first dance to Hey There Delilah by The Plain White Tees.

This was shortly followed by an amusing dance with the bride's best friends and bridesmaids, Rachael and Cressie, who were gorgeous in green silk dresses.

All in all it was a spectacular day which was enjoyed by everyone.

It was the perfect combination of weather, venue and a happy couple!

I have to admit that I am very close to Kate, both at work and personally, and have really enjoyed hearing about the plans and even lending a hand when it was needed. So, I am not shy in admitting that when I saw her walk up the path towards the church on the arm of her dad I may have shed a tear — mostly because she looked gorgeous in her designer gown and, of course, shoes but mainly because she couldn't control her beaming smile.

It was clear to all who witnessed the day that she was very happy to become Mrs Kate Williams!

However, I came down to earth with a hard bump this morning [Monday] as it dawned on me that the new Mrs Williams was off on honeymoon and I am left holding the reins in her shoes!

I am sure that all the Pulman's View readers will join me in wishing them a happy married life and a wonderful honeymoon — at their undisclosed location.

Now...whatever will she do with her time when she returns?

■ In last week's In Her Shoes we referred to Ken and Ruth Hunt as owners of Combe House Hotel in Gittisham. To be clear the Hunts are lease owners of the property; it is in fact the family seat of Richard Marker and his family.

The Check House

Ramblings from The Check House

A big hello from us all. The Check House has undergone a number of significant changes and continues to have a dedicated team of staff who work together to provide expert care, which is sympathetic and tailored to each of our residents specific needs. Sally Magee is now the Manager at The Check House and Helen Buncombe RMN has recently joined us as Head of Care. We are working closely with Bradford University to ensure our staff are trained to the highest possible standards in Person Centred Care. This was piloted in our sister home of Thornfield in Seaton and is proving to be a great success which is why we have now extended our involvement with Bradford University to both The Check House and also to our third home, Silverleigh in Axminster. We employ a Physiotherapist who works with our residents on a one-to-one session and also an Aromatherapist who works at The Check House four days a month and a Musician who works at The Check House two days a week.

And now to update you on what has been happening over the last few months. Our residents have been enjoying trips on the minibus, taking them for a drive in the countryside, stopping wherever possible for a cup of tea and piece of cake or alternatively taking a flask and goodies if the destination is a trip to a vantage point along our beautiful Jurassic Coast. The church concerts in Axminster have resumed once more for the summer on a Thursday lunchtime which is proving to be a very popular outing for many of our residents.

We have a variety of clubs for our residents, including the Memory Club, at Seaton Town Hall, the Music Club with piano and sing-a-longs, Art Classes held weekly and our ever popular Gardening Club. We will soon be enjoying the fruits of our labour in the raised vegetable beds and herb boxes and judging the tallest sunflower! The residents have also taken a keen interest in showing us their skills in cookery with regular sessions in the kitchen assisting our wonderful new chef Donna who joined the team a few weeks ago. Donna is upholding our policy of home cooked meals, wonderful puddings in our dessert fridge and tempting cakes for afternoon tea. This is proving to be a great hit with residents and visiting family and friends..

Date for your diary!!! We are holding our annual Garden Party / Open Day on Saturday 24th July 2010 2.30pm 5.30pm. Please come and join in the fun and take the opportunity to have a look around and meet some of the staff and residents.

If you would like to come and visit us at The Check House please contact either Sally Magee, Manager or Helen Buncombe RMN, Head of Care. We will be happy to show you around our home to see the changes both in the décor inside and the garden outside, and to answer any questions over a cuppa with one of Donnas homemade cakes!. Remember to mark the annual Garden Party in your diary, and lookout for future Ramblings which will feature further events and updates from The Check House.

Club raises cash for charity ahead of sea challenge

TESCO staff joined a team from Lyme Regis Gig Club to take turns on rowing machines for charitable causes.

Customers who visited the supermarket's Axminster branch on Friday, May 28th could watch the spectacle just outside the entrance.

The gig club team is preparing for the Woodvale Challenge in 2011, which will see team members Brian Fletcher, Tony Short, Elliot Dale and Chris Walters row the Atlantic.

The Woodvale Challenge is described the original ocean rowing race and teams from all over the world compete on equal terms within three race classes.

The club brought along a vessel similar to the one they will use for customers to have a look at.

A total sum of £227 was raised and will be shared by Tesco's charity of the year — Clic Sargent — the team's challenge and the gig club's own chosen charities, ShelterBox and British Heart Foundation.

Town's newest firm will sponsor colourful flowers

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@indlenews.co.uk

A NEW arrival on the Honiton business scene has become the first sponsor of some of the town's flowerbeds and hanging baskets.

Specflue Ltd will contribute to the maintenance of the flower beds and hanging baskets.

A spokesman for Honiton Town Council said: "Following the transfer of the maintenance of the town's flowerbeds and hanging baskets from East Devon District Council to Honiton Town Council, the town clerk has been investigating the possibility of local business sponsorship to reduce the impact of this service on the council tax paid by residents.

"One of the newest arrivals in Honiton, Specflue Ltd, has become the first business sponsor of this scheme and its contribution will mean that the town council will be able to ensure that the town's floral displays continue to add a splash of colour to Honiton."

Any other businesses interested in sponsoring the town's flowerbeds and other floral displays should contact Honiton Town Council at its offices in New Street.

Young farmers strike Cornish Mutual deal

CORNISH Mutual and the Devon Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs have struck a sponsorship deal.

The deal means that young farmers across Devon will be getting a helping hand with their training and activities as the insurance firm will be supporting a number of events organised by the federation over the next 12 months.

As part of the deal Cornish Mutual will, for example, be involved with various aspects of a farm business competition, an outdoor activities day and Skills for Life training courses.

The Devon Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs has 38 clubs across the county, with more than 1,400 members.

Each club belongs to one of six groups — north Devon, Tarka, Exe Valley, east Devon, Haldon and south Dartmoor.

The groups organise a number of events each year including county sports and competitions, training and balls.

Cornish Mutual MD Alan Goddard said: "Young farmers are the future of the industry in the region and it's so important to support their development. Young Farmers Clubs are a vital part of the rural community — we're delighted to be working with them."

Mark Davis, the chairman of Devon Federation of Young Farmers', added: "The partnership between Cornish Mutual and Devon YFC goes back over 60 years and for that we are very grateful."

the churches

THE following comes from the National Rural Officer for the Church of England, she writes that Glyn Evans would welcome hearing stories from small rural communities where recruiting church wardens has become problematical.

What are PCCs doing to be creative? How are PCCs coping with the legal issues? Can you tell stories of churches sharing church wardens with other parishes in the benefice? Have parishes amalgamated with other parishes in the benefice legally to spread the critical mass for recruitment.

Glyn would also like to hear how church wardens are supported — spiritual direction, supervision, peer group support? And also examples of training and induction for church wardens and other office holders. Glyn would also be pleased to hear from other denominations who struggle with the issues for local office holders as well. Please email Glyn on Glynpe@tiscali.co.uk.

A booklet answering questions about the Pope's forthcoming visit are being sent to parishes, politicians and journalists this week. Launching the 31-page booklet, The Most Revd Vincent Nichols, head of Catholics in England and Wales, hailed September's four-day visit by Pope Benedict a 'very significant moment' for a nation facing hard times ahead.

"In times of difficulty, we need all the inner resources that we can muster," he said.

The Pope in the UK booklet is partly designed to demystify Catholicism and address 'a gap in public knowledge' he said. On Pope Benedict's itinerary is a visit to Westminster Abbey where the remains of the Saint Benedict reside in his tomb. Canon Jane Hedges, now a Canon of Westminster, and formerly Rector of St Paul's Honiton, will be meeting the Pope.

Church of England members and parishes are being reminded that a second election concerns them very shortly, namely elections to their General Synod.

The commitment is for 10 days a year for five years and you can play a real part in the decisions about the church. Lay candidates have to be at least 18 years old, be actual communicants of the Church of England and on the electoral roll of a parish in the diocese. Members of the Deanery Synod, are the electorate. Closing date for nominations is September 3rd, which have to go to the Old Deanery Exeter. For forms and enquiries call 01392 294928.

As the month changes to July there is a feast of music at St Andrew's Colyton. On Friday, July 2nd the Simon Watterton Trio perform Beethoven's Archduke Trio, and other trios by Haydn and Debussy.

On Saturday, July 3rd there is a Come and Sing Haydn's Creation starting in church at 11am, directed by Brian Kay. Then it is the turn of Branscombe Church to offer a concert in church on July 17th at 7.30pm — in aid of the new cloakroom facilities.

For charities — which include churches — the headline news in the second budget of 2010 was that VAT will rise to 20 per cent. The government will continue to explore with voluntary sector representatives ways to improve the Gift Aid system and assist charitable giving.

Recognising the efficiencies that can be achieved by organisations such as churches sharing services and the potential VAT barrier that exists, the government has started discussions with charities and other affected sectors to consider options for implementing the EU cost sharing exemption. What was not revealed — though perhaps it was not to be expected in the circumstances — was the slightest hint as to the possible extension of the Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme.

The BBC launched a new ethics and religion programme broadcast on Sunday mornings at 10am on BBC1 from June 27th. Sunday Morning Live will take its topical subject matter seriously, but issues will be tackled in an accessible way.

The show is presented by Richard Bacon and Susanna Reid and is a mixture of short films and discussion between the presenters and studio guests, opening out to an audience from all parts of the UK.

I wonder if all the churches in east Devon know that their local church in the Church of England is already listed on a free national website — titled A Church Near You? The full website provides space for contact information, service times, and local activities. Those churches which are already listed there have noticed an increase in their congregations. Churches who wish to register their entry and include local details in their site should contact www.achurchnearyou.com.

When such people do come along and join our local church activities we must remember that they may be the church of tomorrow as well as to-day, and they need a warm welcome from all those with whom they come in contact at our services.

Reckless driver fails to report a dangerous oil spill on road

EDITOR — On May 25th at about 5.05pm my son was on his way home from work on his motorcycle riding along Chard Road into Axminster.

On entering the 20mph zone he lost control of his bike and crashed outside Axe Valley Community College.

My son phoned to tell me he had come off his bike. I went to the scene to find him in shock and a lot of pain and a broken bike. He couldn't work out what had happened.

Before I arrived the police were already on the scene along with the patient transport ambulance and crew from Axminster Hospital who helped him and took him to the injuries unit. Thank you to you all.

The cause of my son's crash was a very recent spray of oil, believed to be hydraulic oil from an agricultural vehicle that had sprayed onto the road surface due to a burst pipe or coupling.

The approximate area was at least 50 yards long and three feet wide. It was this that had caused him to lose control of his bike — he didn't stand a chance.

Once the initial hydraulic pressure had ceased a trail of oil continued, right turn at the junction, through the square down West Street straight to the roundabout into the lay-by where the vehicle stopped for a while leaving oil spilling out.

This left a substantial amount of oil behind. Then they carried on causing further contamination. There are also other oil trails leading to and from a farm in the Kilmington area. The oil stains can still be seen now.

After contaminating the public highway with several gallons of hydraulic oil at what point did the driver realise there was a problem?

If not at that moment then they certainly did soon after when they expected the hydraulics to work. The driver had a choice.

To find out where the incident had occurred and report it immediately so as the appropriate action could be taken to avoid serious risk and injury to other road users, or fix the hydraulic leak and say nothing. It seems the latter was chosen.

My son has had to have several days off work, a big knock to his confidence, been in a lot of pain from his injuries, which have needed redressing every other day and also been very painful for him.

His bike is badly damaged and unusable, this will cost a substantial amount of money to fix or replace.

His clothing and crash helmet are also ruined. Yes, he has comprehensive insurance but he has £250 excess for bike damage, clothing not included.

His premium will increase next year if he makes a claim. All this through no fault of his own. If the person responsible has any conscience they will come forward to offer compensation for his own doing.

A message to farmers and farm contractors. I am not tarring all with the same brush. There are a small number of you out there who don't seem to understand that it is their responsibility as operators to maintain their vehicles and equipment in a roadworthy state if used on the public highway.

I say this especially at this time when silaging season is here with the tractors and trailers going to and fro, some leaving trails of oil behind them. They know who they are. Get it sorted before someone gets injured or worse.

Annual meeting is far from dull affair

OFTEN an annual meeting can be a dull affair and people make excuses to avoid attending.

But the Blackdown Support Group annual meeting always has a social element and the entertainment provided this year was excellent.

The meeting took place on the evening of Tuesday, June 8th at the Throgmorton Community Hall, Dunkeswell.

The chairman and co-ordinator both took the opportunity to thank all the volunteers and friends who support the group for their help over the past year.

Thanks and small gifts were presented to Roger Lambert and Anne Sworn who were both standing down as trustees.

The chairman then took members swiftly through the necessary business and they were then able to move on to the fun — and what fun it was.

Welcome to the Churchinford Calypso Band. The band played a selection of tunes that had people swaying in their chairs and silently singing along.

The band took a break so everyone could enjoy the refreshments — a wonderful spread with wine and cheese.

When the band resumed, dancing girls could be found at the back of the hall. I don't think this was due to the wine.

So, thanks to the Churchinford Calypso Band for making the meeting go with a swing.

The only problem is how does the group top that next year? You will need to come along and find out.

If you want to find out more about the Blackdown Support Group — whether as a possible client, future friend or volunteer — please ring Barbara on 01823 681036.

Club excels in skittles

THE Axminster Inner Wheel Club has in recent years gone from strength to strength and for the first time decided to enter the District Skittles Cup which covers the whole of Devon.

The fantastic news is that after several nail-biting, but successful earlier rounds, they won through to the final and were pitched against the Okehampton Inner Wheel Club.

Low and behold the team excelled themselves and won a close fought match by seven pins.

So to add to all their other achievements they are now the Devon District Champions.

◆ BREDA Holden with her watercolour painting

Artist stresses tone in watercolour talk

BREDA Holden was given a warm welcome by the members of the Seaton and District Art Society at its monthly meeting held at the Methodist Church Hall, Seaton.

Breda's choice of subject was a dramatic arrangement of lilies in water colour.

It was not intended to be a botanical study as Breda prefers to exaggerate the shapes of the petals in order to create drama and character.

The stigmas of the lilies were marked out in masking fluid to keep them sharp while painting the petals.

Breda stressed the importance of tone in her work and to achieve this she often takes a black and white photograph of her subject so that she can access where the tone lies.

The audience was handed out previously painted pictures showing the sequence of colour application as well as Breda's own knowledge of water colour techniques, which the members found extremely helpful.

The next monthly demonstration and talk at the Methodist Church in Seaton on July 5th will cover Animals On The Loose — a water colour and pastel study by Marilyn Allis.

New members and visitors are welcome.

The Seaton and District Art Society is proud to announce its 39th Annual Art Exhibition at Seaton Town Hall which will be open to the public on Saturday, August 7th until August 12th from 10am to 5.30pm every day.

South West Trains talk informs forum

THE Axminster Senior's Forum held a meeting on Monday, June 14th. The speaker was Philip Torjussen, station manager of west of England, South West Trains.

He started by explaining how he had a Norwegian surname. His grandfather worked on timber ships out of Bergen and one day he saw a young lady on the dockside and fell in love and never returned to Norway. He promised that this was perfectly true.

South West Trains have a franchise with the government and lease their trains from them. The number of trains they have is governed by this. Network Rail owns the tracks and stations and South West Trains rents these from them.

It is Network Rail who built the new track a mile and half either side of Axminster station. Seven bridges had to be updated and there had to be a lift. The first two trains passed at the loop on December 13th last year, this had not happened since 1967.

CCTV covers all of the station but unfortunately this does not stop the vandalism. He apologised to the members for the fact that the booking hall and toilets are closed when there are no staff on duty. But explained that while it was manned the toilets were damaged so it made it impossible to leave them open when no-one was there.

One problem is the parking but they hope to have more space once Network Rail have cleared all of the debris left from the building works.

Though the station is not manned all of the time they plan to open seven days a week at sometime in the future. With so many people buying their tickets on the internet not so many people come to the station to purchase. But they realised that there was a need for a personal touch, not everyone had the internet and the ticket machine was not popular with all passengers.

Since the loop was built sales have increased. He explained that reserved seats no longer existed on their trains. They had found that there were plenty of seats and the booking system was not needed.

Members asked a variety of questions and Mr Torjussen was able to answer them to everyone's satisfaction.

After a tea break the afternoon's business was dealt with. Mr Tim Hall was introduced to the members. He deals with the publicity for the Senior Council for Devon going round to the 29 groups, dealing with articles for newspapers and generally giving a helping hand. He was scheduled to be with Axminster Senior's Forum on Saturday, June 26th at their stand at the Axe Vale Festival.

Members were also introduced to Peter Smart who is the co-ordinator currently setting up a memory cafe for Axminster. He told members about the cafe and said he hoped it would start in July.

An inter-generational cream tea will take place at the area Youth Centre, formerly known as Pippins, on Saturday, July 24th between 2pm and 4pm.

The next meeting will be held at the Church Room off Church Street, Axminster, at 2pm on Monday, July 19th.

Has the buzz of bees all but disappeared?

THE two large escalonia hedges which border part of the garden are now in full red flower and should be attracting scores of honey and bumble bees. Usually, at this time of the year there is a steady vuvuzela-like hum as the insects buzz from flower to flower but, worryingly, there were only half-a-dozen honey bees and three or four bumble bees this morning, despite the glorious warmth and sunlight.

The decline in the number of honey bees, and their bumbling cousins, is causing deep concern amongst bee-keepers and environmentalists country and world-wide. It's not simply that honey will be in short supply, but the fact that these insects are an essential agent of pollination for a wide range of plants, many of which like strawberries and apples, include human food stuff.

In America the honey bee pollinates over 90 crops and the value of these busy little workers is estimated, in terms of agricultural output, at around £8 billion annually, but for the past four years one third of the colonies have been wiped out in the winter. In Britain, where bees pollinate fruit and oilseed rape, their output value has been calculated at around £200 million. So what is going wrong? Why the decline?

Bees have always been subject to various diseases, notably the Varroa mite which has wiped out whole colonies and was first seen in this country in 1992 but the most dramatic cause of bee loss is Colony Collapse, a phenomenon in which worker bees simply vanish and, as a result, the colony dies out. The reason for their disappearance is simply not known and, first noted in America, Colony Collapse has now appeared in several European countries. So far, the problem has not yet appeared in this country and beekeepers are praying that Britain will remain immune. One hopeful sign is the efforts being made to recruit more beekeepers and interest in this vital business does seem to be paying dividends with an increasing number of trainee beekeepers coming forward.

If bees are on the decline so, I fear, are butterflies. At the moment there is a modest hatch of meadow browns in the grass fields where I live, and a few speckled woods are seen fluttering in spirals by the hedges, but apart from these and the odd white, nothing. No blues, no small coppers, no tortoiseshells — and as for moths, well, they appear to be virtually all extinct.

In the recent past the outside lights would normally have attracted dozens of moths, but last night, for instance, I saw one in the garden, despite nicotiana plants in full flower and various other insect-attractors. It is incredibly depressing and one can only hope that the warm, sunny summer, so far, will help all insects to survive and increase.

However, to cheer us up I hear that wildlife-friendly gardens will be celebrated at an award ceremony at Castle Gardens Centre, Sherborne, on Thursday, July 15th. Dorset Wildlife Trust has joined with The Gardens Group to run the Wildlife Friendly Gardening Competition and awards will be presented by Clive Farrell of Ryewater Nursery. Clive is the creator of the world's biggest butterfly park and research centre, Butterfly World, at St Albans in Hertfordshire which opened last year and winners will receive wall plaques and a wildlife friendly collection of plants and books.

The awards, including a wildlife gardening talk by Clive Farrell, is open to all from 5.30pm to 7.30pm and tickets, costing £5 to include light refreshments, can be obtained from Joy Wallis at jwallis@dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk or by calling 01305 264620.

◆ IRISH violinist Anna Cashell

PIANIST Simon Watterton is one of several star names to feature at Colyton Summer Music Festival 2010 in St Andrew's Church.

He is no stranger to Colyton, having made many recital appearances in the town.

He will be joined by Irish violinist Anna Cashell and Canadian cellist Christian Elliott and their programme will include Beethoven's Archduke Trio and trios by Haydn and Debussy.

Their concert is on Friday, July 2nd starting at 7.30pm and tickets can be purchased — priced at £9 — on the door on a first come first served basis.

The following day — Saturday, July 3rd — singers from around the area are invited to come and Sing Haydn's Creation, directed by conductor and broadcaster Brian Kay.

Jilly Spencer, who helps to promote the festival, said: "East Devon singers are incredibly lucky to have the chance to study and perform the Creation with him."

Soloists will be Mary Morgan, soprano, Leslie Baker, tenor, and David Fouracre, bass-baritone, and rehearsal will start at 11am.

Advance booking is essential for those wishing to sing and booking forms can be found in St Andrew's Church or by calling 01297 560493.

On Sunday, July 4th there will be Sung Eucharist in St Andrew's Church, starting at 9.45am, during which the choir will perform the anthem Isanae et vanae Curae by Haydn.

Family day boosts cash

THE neonatal unit at Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital is in for a cash boost thanks to a family's fundraising effort.

As previously reported, Tim and Julie Rich staged a family teddy bears' picnic on Sunday, June 13th in aid of the unit, which cared for their twin girls — Katie and Ellie — for the first 24 days of their life.

Julie and Tim have now reported that the day was a roaring success, the amount raised having passed the £2,000 mark and still counting.

The event was staged in the family's field in Yarcombe and Julie said: "We would like to say a massive thank you to everyone who supported our family picnic."

"The total so far stands at a marvellous £2,089.07 with donations still coming in, which is fantastic."

"This has completely exceeded our expectations and we thank you for your generosity."

"The weather held out and we hope everyone had an enjoyable afternoon. Katie and Ellie had a great time meeting lots of new faces."

The teddy bears' competition was won by Pippa Harris and Harry Branch whilst the sweets in the jar were won by Anna Podbery.

Julie also said: "Cow 422 did her business in square number 10, so there were 64 cow pat winners, all winning £10 each."

"Thank you all once again for your support, we really appreciate your kindness."

Dancing on an incoming tide Dowlais Male Voice Choir for Seaton concert

DANCING on an Incoming Tide is the brain-child of local dancer Helen Poyner who lives in Beer and has been working with dance on inspiring tidal sites on the Jurassic Coast for many years. She runs the Walk of Life programme of movement workshops based in Beer which is affiliated to the Jurassic Coast Arts programme.

Dancing on an Incoming Tides consists of two phases embracing both public participation and artistic creation in response to tidal locations near Beer Head.

The Walk of Life Summer School from July 12th - 16th will provide an opportunity to experience 5 days of creative movement, journeying through these magical tidal landscapes. The Walk of Life approach to movement is based on the natural structure of the body and fosters a receptive and responsive attitude to oneself, to others and to the environment. The mornings will be spent working inside using simple movement scores alone and in pairs or small groups. This prepares the participants for the afternoons moving outside in response to the natural environment. The summer school offers a full-bodied, open-hearted encounter with the natural world - from rock pool to waves, from pebbles to cliffs, from clouds to cormorants, from subtle awareness to expansive expression. It is open to people who would like an intensive introduction to this approach to movement in the environment as well those with some experience of movement. It will include some less accessible sites. In order to encourage local participants there is a £20 discount for the first 2 participants from Devon or Dorset to register.

The second phase of the project is a small-scale environmental dance film to be created as an artistic response to the same locations in September 2010. Helen Poyner the artistic director of the project is an independent movement artist with 30 years of professional experience. She specialises in site-specific performance, movement in natural environments and interdisciplinary collaborations combining movement with film and the visual arts. Helen is a mentor for a number of established and emerging dance practitioners regionally and nationally and is a visiting Professor in Performance at Coventry University. Previous local projects include 'Crow-ne' created with visual artist Annie Pfingst on the coast between Beer and Branscombe and exhibited at the Town Mill Galleries Lyme Regis.

A CONCERT by Dowlais Male Voice Choir will be held at Seaton Town Hall on July 24th.

The Dowlais Male Choir numbers approximately 65 voices. Its members being drawn from an area of about 50 miles around the County Borough of Merthyr Tydfil in the South Wales Valleys.

The Choir has given concerts in no less than 200 different towns and cities and other venues throughout the world. It is a touring choir, whose repertoire extends to some 300 pieces, including both sacred and secular music. Classical composers include Beethoven, Mozart and Schubert.

Also included are folk songs from around the world, songs from stage and screen, popular songs, hymns and male voice favourites. Each concert programme is tailored to the venue and the occasion.

This should prove to be a very enjoyable evening, and we encourage people to book early to avoid disappointment.

A bar service will be available. Tickets at £7.50 each are on sale from Chris Byrne-Jones in the Square at Seaton or telephone Kevin on 01297 24330 (evenings only). Proceeds will, as usual, go to our charitable causes.

Sports for all ages at Cloakham Lawn

Walk on water, visit monster island or just go for a swim at the Flamingo Pool

CLOAKHAM Lawn Sports Centre provides excellent Club facilities for both Axminster Indoor and Outdoor Bowls Clubs and Axminster Town Cricket Club.

The Outdoor Bowls Club enjoy their own clubhouse and six outdoor rinks, in a beautiful location in a corner of the grounds, throughout the Summer months.

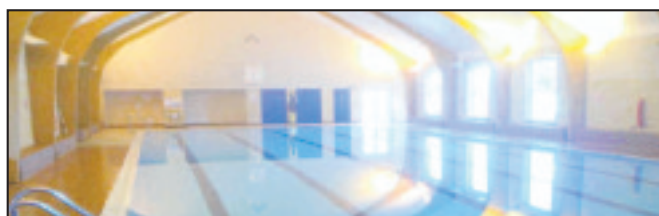

The Indoor Bowls Club have three rinks within the main building and also utilise the Cloakham Bar and Social area. The indoor season runs from October to May.

Both clubs offer full league, inter-club and friendly competitions for experienced players together with tuition and informal roll ups for beginners.

Two full Cricket Pitches enable Axminster Town Cricket Club to run four sides in the Devon Cricket League as well as a Ladies team in the Devon Woman's League.

An extensive Junior programme of weekly training and coaching courses run throughout the year supporting five Colts teams from Under 11s to Under 15s. Cloakham Lawn also has a floodlit, multi-sport court available for hire, predominantly used for five-a-side football and football training. The bar and social areas are also available for hire, together with full catering facilities, for private parties and community activities.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre is a registered charity set up to provide sporting facilities and opportunities for the people of Axminster. To become a member and learn a new skill in a friendly environment just call 01297 34447 or email us at cloakhamlawn@btconnect.com.

THE Flamingo Pool water is virtually chlorine free – disinfected by ultra violet light means no more sore eyes with under half the chlorine of other pools. More luxury in the form of under floor heating to keep your feet warm when changing.

Don't just swim up and down, come and try one of our different activities. From gentle Aquacize, to the more energetic – Aqua Fit and Fun Circuits. A wide range of activities and sessions are designed to give everyone the opportunity to get themselves wet. For those who don't know how to get wet our comprehensive lesson programme will get you swimming or improve your stroke – whatever your age.

MONSTER ISLAND AND WATERWALKERZ

Have a wild time on 'Monster Island' inflatable. Adults welcome if accompanied by children! The Island is open for one hour sessions, separate charges. The pool is cleared before and after each session, and bands are sold on first come first served basis with a maximum of 70 people. Once full, admission will be suspended. Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult and be able to swim 25m, if they wish to go on the inflatable.

Now you can walk on water or, if you prefer, be a human hamster! Waterwalkerz allow children and adults to run, roll, spin and flip on water. It's great fun and also is fantastic way to get fit and active. It takes a few times (and a lot more deep breaths) to master the technique – and once you are running around you are still going to have a great workout! Surprisingly you can be fully clothed and will not even get wet. Safe fun for all ages from 6 Year olds upwards. Waterwalkerz cost £2.50 for a five minute session, and must be booked in advance.

Aston Martin DB9: the definitive sports Grand Tourer

IN THE most significant programme of upgrades since its world debut in 2003, Aston Martin's DB9 range has received a complete package of styling, engineering and equipment enhancements.

As the most successful Aston Martin of all-time (an honour it shares with the V8 Vantage) the DB9 has established itself as the definitive grand tourer, thanks to an enduring combination of understated elegance, sporting character and genuine luxury.

For Dr Ulrich Bez, Aston Martin's Chief Executive, the DB9 remains a very special car: "The DB9 is the quintessential sporting grand tourer and offers an unrivalled combination of driver involvement, character, luxury and refinement. This car combines our unique Aston Martin character with an uncompromised design philosophy, craftsmanship and trademark Aston Martin performance ability."

This new package of improvements complements these core qualities perfectly. Subtle styling changes freshen the DB9's appearance, with a new front bumper, bright finish radiator grille and a re-shaped lower intake featuring bright hexagonal mesh. New headlight bezels, re-styled sills, silver brake calipers, 20-spoke diamond turned alloy wheels and clear rear light lenses complete the external revisions.

Under the skin the DB9's passive damping system has been replaced by a new Adaptive Damping System (ADS), which offers enhanced ride comfort together with sharper handling when switched to Sport mode. The ADS system is offered as standard equipment across the DB9 range, encompassing both Coupe and Volante (convertible). A new tyre pressure monitoring system, a revised Bluetooth microphone system and the addition of a new Double Apex alloy finish trim and Bang & Olufsen hi-fi options broaden the DB9's specification.

Aston Martin's Product Development Director, Ian Minards, explains that it is all part of an ongoing commitment to continual improvement: "The DB9 was the first car built at Gaydon adopting the VH architecture. It has evolved every year since, with significant changes including a power upgrade and successive reductions in CO2 emissions. The latest package of improvements goes further than ever, highlighting the DB9's qualities as a true sporting GT and underlining its role as the backbone car of our range."

The Aston Martin DB9 is available as either Coupe or Volante (convertible) with rear mid-mounted six-speed manual gearbox as standard or optional 'Touchtronic 2' six-speed automatic transmission. Production of the revised DB9 is already underway, with deliveries commencing in July. Prices start from £122,445 for the DB9 Coupe and £131,445 for the DB9 Volante.

Jaguar XKR 75 makes debut at Goodwood festival of speed

An exclusive XKR – the XKR 75 – will make its debut at the Goodwood Festival of Speed on July 2.

Jaguar Land Rover's new CEO, Dr Ralf Speth, initiated the challenge to the Jaguar engineering team to construct an XKR to celebrate Jaguar's 75th anniversary, which would deliver a combination of enhanced performance, superb chassis and steering control and grip levels to inspire the driving enthusiast to explore the true potential of the XKR's capabilities.

Mike O'Driscoll, managing director, Jaguar Cars, said: "The XKR 75 will provide owners with exclusivity, excitement and a hint of Jaguar's great heritage. This is a fitting way to celebrate the sporting credentials of the XK marque in the 75th year of the Jaguar name," he continued.

Jaguar engineers increased the power and torque of the acclaimed 5.0-litre supercharged engine to 530PS and 655Nm respectively for the XKR 75, to deliver truly outstanding performance. While the limited edition model's top speed is electronically limited to 174mph (280km/h), the XKR 75's 0–60mph (100km/h) acceleration time is reduced from 4.6 to 4.4 seconds compared to the standard 510 PS XKR.

Using the rigid lightweight aluminium architecture of the XK as a solid foundation, the increased power of the XKR 75 is matched by an agile, dynamic chassis that handles supremely, rides exceptionally well and stops with surefooted reassurance time after time.

The Jaguar XKR 75 features revised suspension and handling for increased precision and agility in addition to the performance enhancements. To ensure the XKR 75 remains stable at high speeds, a revised aerodynamic body pack with a front splitter, side sills extensions, a rear diffuser and larger rear spoiler provide increased balance and a reduction in lift. The XKR's computerised Active Differential Control also adjusts to reduce steering sensitivity at very high speeds, further improving stability and driver control.

And with an improved acoustics package for the semi-active sports exhaust, the XKR 75 produces a pulse-racing growl to match its performance.

The car's driver-focused character, however, has not been achieved at the expense of the Jaguar traditional values of refinement and comfort.

"We conceived the XKR 75 as a sports car with a duality of character that makes it perfectly suited to driving across Europe to the Nurbur-gring, completing some very fast laps, and then driving home again, added Mike Cross, Chief Engineer Vehicle Integrity.

The XKR 75 features a new Stratus Grey finish. Red brake calipers contrast the eye-catching 20-inch gloss Vortex forged lightweight alloys with a dark technical finish and diamond turn. Customers will have the option to apply a unique body graphic that runs from the front bumper to the rear haunches.

The XKR 75's interior completes the driver-focused performance environment finished in Charcoal with ivory stitch, piano black finish to fascia and centre console and a Jet suedecloth headlining.

New cars galore gather at Goodwood for Britain's largest 'moving motor show'

A BUMPER crop of new car debuts are scheduled for Goodwood next week as the inaugural Moving Motor Show and popular Festival of Speed get underway (1-4 July).

With over 175,000 visitors expected over four days, Goodwood has firmly established itself as the world's largest celebration of automotive culture, and the best place to see the latest motoring marvels and latest supercars in action from around the globe, with a number of significant new models making their UK or European debuts. A full list of new cars due to make their UK public debut at Goodwood follows.

On Thursday 1 July, Goodwood will be re-inventing the British Motor Show with the Moving Motor Show – a brand new dedicated Manufacturer preview day – as a one day extension to the hugely successful Festival of Speed.

During this day, new car buyers and enthusiasts will be able to enjoy an exclusive motor show preview day, where they will not only be able to see the very latest new car models on display in a dedicated covered exhibition area, but in some cases also climb aboard and experience the vehicles first-hand, strictly at the invitation of the attending manufacturers. The cars will undertake hundreds of runs on a special near-four mile evaluation route that includes the world famous Goodwood hillclimb, fully dressed and prepared for the Festival of Speed, which kicks off the following day. During the three days of the Festival itself, each of the Moving Motor Show exhibits will remain on static display for all Goodwood visitors to see and admire.

The Sunday Times Supercar Run is unique in providing a dynamic environment in which the public can view new models for the first time. Unlike a conventional motor show, the Supercar Run affords a fantastic opportunity not only to exhibit a new supercar, but also to show it in action on the Goodwood hillclimb during the Festival of Speed. This year 50 cars will participate in the Run, many of which have never been seen publicly in action before, including the public world debut of the much-anticipated McLaren MP4-12C. Other supercars set to make their UK debuts include Zagato's striking Alfa Romeo TZ3 Corsa, the Ferrari 458 Italia, Spyker C-8 Aileron and Veritas RS

III. Away from the Supercar Run, the FoS-TECH technology pavilion showcases a variety of exciting future-focused automotive technologies. Rarely-seen concepts being displayed in this year's FoS-TECH include the Audi e-Tron, Citroen ReVolte, Rinspeed UC, Lexus CT200h and Vauxhall Ampera.

NEWS FROM THE RUNNING CLUBS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter
HARRY Moore had a superb run in the Exeter Festival four mile run from the Quay to Countess Wear, returning by the canal basin. He won the over 75 title finishing in 55:15.

Killerton Kanter had a scorcher of an evening to host their 10k run. Two AVR runners decided to brave the boiling weather and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The winner was Kerry Roberts of Tiverton Harriers in 40:00 and the first lady was Magdalene Miller of North Devon Road Runners. Eleanor Wood came in 4th lady, 36th overall winning a wonderful box of organic veg donated by Riverford.

It was good to see the return of the Doctor, Roger Bramley who ran a strong race, although making a wrong turn and running an extra hill. He finished 57th in 51:30. Roger's wife Crista, new to the running circuit had an impressive first run, even apologising to runners for overtaking them. She finished 131st in 69:43.

Well done to South West Road Runners for a lovely event and especially for the cool pink T-shirts.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey
FARWAY Primary School, supported by Honiton Running Club President Alan Rowe MBE, held its annual road race 'Over the Hill and Farway 10k' on Sunday in glorious sunshine.

This attracted 11 HRC members despite it being Fathers' Day and the World Cup being televised but braver than that, they turned out knowing that they would have to climb Farway's mountain 'Warren Hill'.

Organizers had strategically placed 'encouraging' signs along The Hill and at one point runners were greeted by a skeleton with a sign saying, 'You've done better than me!' The cheerleaders from Farway School at the top were very welcome and although not many runners had the energy to acknowledge them they were much appreciated.

Honiton's Fran Bond won the ladies' race as well as being crowned 'Queen of the Hill' for being first to the summit of The Hill. She completed the race in 45:03 coming 7th overall. She had overtaken Richard Harris in the latter stages much to his disappointment but he was pleased with his race as he likes a good hill. He came 8th in 45:41.

Julian Gigg played his usual tactical race of walking most of The Hill which paid off as he finished one place behind Richard in 46:25. Vernon Gillard doesn't consider himself at his peak at the moment but managed 11th place in 48:35. Judy Davey once again managed to hold off her biggest rival John Burgess, this time by just four seconds. Judy came 14th overall in 49:47 with John 15th in 49:51. John blames the defeat on running the unofficial Midsummer Dream the day before.

Next in was Nick Bradley-Carter who managed to knock five minutes off his last year's time. He came 17th in 50:48. Greg Axsel was 25th in 53:08. Simon Hall came 27th in 54:31 saying once again he's never doing another race. Pippa Westall found the going hot but came 29th in 56:01. Sandy Chugg was on home ground but was glad when it was all over. She came 51st in 1:16:11. There were 54 runners.

Two Honiton runners ran the Yeo Mill Yomp at West Anstey on Sunday to support Howard and Debbie Bidmead of Tiverton Harriers who organize this event, both of whom come and support a lot of our local runs.

The ten plus miles start at Yeo Mill and go up over Exmoor towards the village of Hawkridge and back again via a different route. The course includes steep, stony valleys and open moorland.

The heat made the battle between Bruce Strawbridge and Steve Davey all the more difficult. Steve led for the first 4 miles with Bruce keeping him in his sights but making sure he kept enough energy for the rest of the course.

After overtaking Steve, Bruce knew he had to keep in front, with Steve very determined to catch him up. They came across the line both looking as if they were about to collapse. Bruce came in just ahead of Steve in a time of 1:28:46 and Steve 1:29:29.

Yeo Mill Yomp is definitely a race for your calendar next year. It is superbly organized and with fantastic scenery and cakes that Howard says are better than Dalwood Three Hills!

Steve Boyes took part in the Cheltenham Challenge which is reputedly the most scenic marathon in the country. It is definably a tough one which was reflected in Steve's time of 4hrs 38 mins. For him the race turned into an ultra as he got lost twice so ran about 28 miles! No marshals, only yellow arrows and not enough of them.

Nick Bradley-Carter finished 50th in 31:16 in the Festival 4 Race in Exeter last Wednesday evening which was particularly commendable as he missed a club pub run to take part. It was an odd distance of 4.33 miles but a friendly flat course.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack
Seniors' Section.

IN the Seniors Section the final round of the "Masters" produced an exciting finish with only one stroke separating the three leaders at the start of play.

The scoring on the day reflected the excellent golfing conditions with six players out of the field of 36 beating par. Two players returned with 67s and the winner of the Medal on countback was Malcolm Glass (18) with John Pugh (17) on the same score having to settle for second place.

Third, all on his own with a nett 68 was Jack Bannister (27). Among the 69s was John D. White (20), who held off the challenge of Mike Tones (16), the leader at start of play and three times winner Brian Wilkes (12). This was John's second Masters win, his total of 294 being two ahead of Mike and three ahead of Brian.

Earlier in the week the return inter-club fixture with Vivary took place at Axe Cliff and resulted in a 5-1 win for the home club. Winning pairings for Axe Cliff included Gilbert Cox/Hugh Willis : John Mant/Norman Bowles : Chris Jowett J. W. White: Jack Bannister/Iain Bain and Rob Grove/Norman Stone.

Last Saturday Mid Summer Madness returned to Axe Cliff with players teeing off at 4.45 for a four ball better ball competition and also to see the sun rising which was a wonderful sight.

The winning scores were pretty impressive. First with a 55.9 and including a massive 10 birdies were M. Bond (2) S. Sweetland (17) S. Anning (10) and M. Yates (12). Runners up were L. Snell (10) C. Trivett (10) G. Jackson (14) and M. Hubbard. This was followed by a well earned full English Breakfast.

Axe Cliff Lady Ex Captains played their annual stableford Competition last Wednesday, their winner being Di. Rogers with 35 points. This Wednesday a Medal competition was played, the winner coming in with a nett 71 was Margaret Brown (27), second Di Rogers (29) with a nett 73. Margarets' handicap will be going down!

During the afternoon the Ladies thoroughly enjoyed themselves at a cream tea organised by Lady Captain Helen Gaudie at the lovely home of Mary Gipps, who had laid on a game of croquet and a wonderful raffle, all proceeds going to the Captains charity. Winner of the croquet was Glenda Board.

LYME REGIS with Steve Percival

AFTER another two weeks of incredible weather and resulting course conditions which could only be conducive to good golf, it is hardly surprising that some individual and team scores in events hosted by and participated in by teams and Lyme regis players were outstanding to say the least.

In particular the Junior section of the club staged soome successful internal events which featured some excellent individual performances whilst they also had success in inter club events as well.

Junior Club Championships

Whilst the "roll of honour" featured some familiar names, it was also good to see that some of the up and coming players have now begun to fulfil their promise. Of particular note are the brother and sister duo of Danny and Georgie Searle who gained first place in two events. Danny gaining first place in the handicap competition whilst his sister Georgie was the leading girl in the competition. In the scratch competition George Seed carded an outstanding 81 closely followed by David Lyons with an impressive 84. This meant that George achieved second place in the handicap event with Danny in fourth place. In the under 14s event, played over 6 holes, Macawley Vincent gained first place whilst Lewis Gibbons achieved victory in the under 12 category. The under 10 competition was also a fiercely contested event which Thomas the son of club pro Duncan, Driver achieve first place.

Dorset Junior knockout competition

Having beaten Dudsbury in the second round, the Lyme Junior Team were drawn against Weymouth in the third round of the Dorset League knockout competition. It was always expected that this would prove to be a tough round. However, team spirit and some fine individual performances saw Lyme produce an outstanding victory in the home and away two leg competition. In the away leg the Lyme Team of Richie Yorke, John Bugg, David Lyon, George Yorke, Kai To Li and Danny Searle were narrowly beaten by 31/2 to 21/2. However, in the second round, the Lyme team made full use of the home advantage to run out winners by 4 to 2 to secure overall victory by 61/2 to 51/2. They now wait to hear who they will play in the quarter final.

Meanwhile, in the Daily Mail National competition, the Lyme Regis pairing of Scott Love (1) and Johnny Ebdon (8) played a very steady round of golf to convincingly defeat their Taunton and Pickering opponents by 7& 5 to win through to the 6th round of the competition.

Seniors Golf

At the other end of the generation spectrum the Seniors section of the club has not only staged two successful internal competitions but has also "notched up" some notable interclub successes.

In the recent Seniors Stableford competition ever improving John Coley secured a victory with 40 points on count back over Malcolm Hinxman.

The Seniors Medal competition which, by its very nature is not always popular with the more mature golfer, saw a reduced field struggle to card a respectable score. However, newcomer to the club, Peter Cogan playing off a handicap of eleven, carded an exceptional score of net 69 to win the event overall, albeit on countback, to win the event overall.

In inter club events the Senior section scored some notable victories also not the least of which was in the quarter final of the Knighton Heath knockout competition. The first team of Roger Driver, Julian Cox, Mike Warren, Steve Phillips, Malcolm Wilson, Peter Mayles, Geoff Richmond, Graham Langford, Peter Lock, and Mike Hankey secured an outstanding victory against Hockley Golf Club by 6-4.

Also of note is the fact that Julian Cox achieved his fifth ever hole in one in a recent inter-club match against Woodbury Park Golf Club.

Cricket round-up

Honiton squeeze home in nailbiting derby clash

AXMINSTER CRICKET CLUB

with Phil Spong

HALFWAY through the league programme and a poor weekend for the club with all four teams losing.

The 1st XI entertained Plymstock at Cloakham and the visitors won the toss, elected to bat and set a formidable total of 304 for the loss of only 5 wicket. Robbie Prior ended with 3 wickets but at a cost 97 runs in his 13 overs. The Axminster side were far from their best in the field and several chances were put down including one from overseas player Nick James who went on to score his second successive century. Opener Dominic Wood (70) and Josh Hocking (39n.o) were the other main contributors.

The worst possible start with both openers out with the total at eight it was always going to be an uphill struggle. The innings never really gained any momentum and ended after only 31 overs for a total of 164 with Seb Jordan (5-38) and Dave Orchard (3-41) taking the bowling honours. Skipper Paul Miller will be looking for the team to get back on track in the second when they travel to Barnstaple next week.

The second string after a couple of reasonable results were found seriously wanting away at Alphington. Asked to bat they were dismissed in 32 overs for 98 with Tom Maxwell (33) the only player to show any resistance. The home side then found little difficulty in gaining victory by nine wickets in only 15 overs.

The 3rd XI lost to Honiton but in a competitive match. Honiton elected to bat and were bowled out for 227. An opening stand of 56 set them off but at 95-5 the innings could go either way. A partnership of 60 between Tom Travers (32) and A Lapping (29) steadied the ship and C Lapping (44) with the aid of the lower order pushed the total to 227. For Axminster Josh Singleton impressed in two spells of bowling taking 5-28 in 10 overs. Axminster had the worst of starts losing opener Ostler with only 1 run and then Colinleadbetter at 24 but the in form Steve Wakely (76) together with skipper Mark Enticott (47) kept the home side very much in the race with a stand of 116. At 210-5 they should have been able to complete the win but they then collapsed losing five wickets for nine runs with Andy Canniford finishing the innings with 3-7 spell to leave Honiton winners by eight runs.

The 4th XI visited top of the table side Chagford and were soundly beaten. Chris Brown won the toss but gave Chagford the opportunity to bat and they made good use ending their innings at tea on 389-3. Centuries for G Sizmur (113) and youngster B Searle (137) and R Whitaker (65) made an impossible task for the Axminster side. Richard Parkes picked up two wickets but the figures are best left alone! The 4th XI were then bundled out for 78 with only resistance coming from Phil Spong with 47.

Axminster Ladies 148 for 3 beat Hatherleigh Ladies 95 all out with Emily Broad

ON a glorious day at Cloakham Lawns this was a top of table clash.

After winning the toss Axminster elected to bat but only after 21 mins their first wicket fell for just 21 on the board and four mins later their second opener fell for just 3. Then unstepped Sophia Brown and Emily Broad who put on over an hundred partnership before sophia was bowled for 27. Captain Emily Broad carried her bat and finished just short of her fifty on 43 not out.

Hannah Singleton opened the bowling and in her third over dismissed Hatherleigh's opener for just nine runs this was just the start of a great all round bowling performance from Axminster with Emily Broad and Aimee Rowe finishing on identical figures 2-10, but it was Kez Wakely who topped the bowling with 3-23.

Honiton 1st XI vs Chelston 1st XI

HONITON 1st XI entertained entertained Chelston at Mountbatten Park in a game which marks the halfway point of the season.

The skipper lost the toss and Honiton were invited to bat. Honiton found themselves in trouble having lost Brad Groves, George Meadows and Ollie Cave with the score on 24. However with Phil Tansley and Adam Holmes at the crease the pair put on 135 for the 4th wicket before Holmes finally fell scoring an excellent 65 with some clean hitting of the ball. In came Tim Hemery and he and Tansley put another 50 runs on the board before Tansley departed scoring a superb 98. With the score on 210 for 5 Kev Kelly joined Hemery at the crease and the pair put on 120 for the sixth wicket before Hemery was sent on his way after scoring an excellent 66. Honiton finally finished on 336 for 6 with Kelly scoring a well crafted 57 not out.

Honiton took to the field in confident mood and opened with their normal pairing of Holmes and Tansley. Holmes struck with the first ball of the innings having their opener caught behind by Meadows.

Holmes bowled a superb opening spell taking 4 wickets in 7 overs for 2 runs to have Chelston in trouble at 39 for 4. Tansley got in on the act and Chelston were 82 for 5. After some resistance Kev Kelly took another couple of wickets and Chelston were 131 for 7.

Back came Holmes into the attack and he started where he left off from his first spell picking up another couple of wickets finishing with 6 wickets for 13 from 12 overs. Tansley cleaned bowled the last man and Chelston were all out for 162. Tansley finished with 2 for 45 and Kelly 2 for 40. Honiton again picked up the maximum 20 pts and Chelston 6.

Honiton sit at the top of the table at the halfway point 10 pts clear of Kenn. The travel to Exeter Civil Service next week.

Honiton 2nd XI v Axminster 3rd XI
HONITON's expedition to Axminster on a scorching day found a flat looking pitch with a closely shaved outfield which promised plenty of hard work for the bowlers, so it was no surprise, when having won the toss, Honiton elected to bat.

Pete Beighton ground out a tenacious 19, while Canniford compiled a dashing 42 (five fours, one six). For Axminster, the wily Summers exerted some control early on, but it was the malevolent left arm pace of Singleton which began to make inroads as Honiton lost their first wicket at 56, triggering a middle order wobble.

Dixon was caught for eight and Kelly, skied a top edge to short extra cover. Jaworski continued his impressive bid to claim the duck trophy, skying an attempted pull to mid off.

At 95-5, the innings was in need of some stability, which was duly provided by Travers (32) and Andrew Lapping (29) who both unveiled their infrequently sighted forward defensive techniques for almost the first time this season.

Travers's early scoring prompted a gaggle of fielders to converge in the cow corner region, while Lapping made use of areas on both sides of the wicket. At 154-6, Craig Lapping came to add his weight to the proceedings, boosting the score towards 200 and full batting points.

Despite losing Brinsford for six, Lapping was able to nurse the tail as the pitch began to misbehave, adding crucial runs with Sluman (5) and eventually being last out for a cultivated 44 (eight fours).

Honiton's total of 227 appeared to offer a challenge of substance without putting the game beyond doubt, being just short of the 230 par score suggested by certain knowledgeable pundits.

Craig Lapping opened proceedings with his understated brand of swerve and lift from the Wimbledon end, striking with his fourth ball as Jaworski held onto a leading edge. Then, in his third over he had Leadbetter feathering behind and taken by the juggling Canniford. Honiton appeared well on their way at 24-2.

Wakely and Enticott took a different view by attempting to dominate proceedings with a series of adventurous shots aimed at maximising their returns. Neither Brinsford nor Jaworski experienced much in the way of luck from the Padstone end as the two batsmen seized the initiative, riding their good fortune and picking off the runs at an alarming rate.

At 140-2 in the 24th over, Axminster were set for a comfortable coast to the finishing line, but the artful Kelly struck a key blow with his flipper as Wakely top edged to square leg for 76, where Jaworski held an excellent catch despite being blinded by the sun.

The cracks in the pitch continued to open up as a Kelly half tracker did an impression of a Harrier jump jet, ballooning wildly over the batsman.

Hill tried some promising looking slow medium doobers before cranking up the speed dial to 11 and bowling Enticott for a crafty 46 followed by Wynn for nought. Honiton were at least edging back into the game but with 18 needed from 10 overs and five wickets in hand victory was going to be a mere bagatelle for Axminster or was it?

The run torrent slowed to dribble when Canniford handed keeping duties over to Lapping and came into the attack to dismiss Sarwan for 24. With the dangerous Singleton still at the crease, victory still appeared a formality until Hill's loopy off cutter found a path through to his leg leg stump.

Eight overs to go, 14 needed, three wickets left. Kelly, Travers and Sluman make cracking saves in the field as the scoring dries up completely. Three runs come from the next four overs, surely Axminster have to attempt the final push. Canniford bowled Gadsden and follows up by cleaning up Kelleher and Honiton are on the brink.

Ten needed from three overs, one wicket left and the hugely experienced Summers still at the crease, Summers takes a single, exposing last man Chennery to three deliveries. Hill chucks up a couple of tempters, to no avail, before cranking up the pace again to hit the leg stump and Honiton get home by eight runs and the skin of their teeth. (Canniford 3-7, Hill 4-34, Lapping 2-28).

Honiton Skipper Andrew Lapping is pleased with how things have gone at the half way point "We thought that a score of 250 was required today and that almost looked the case. We showed today that we are a side that can dig in and grind out results when required, all though this isn't the first time we have this season."

"To be sat third at the half way stage is very pleasing for us, but we are aware that we need to keep playing at our best and working hard for each other between now and the end of the season."

Honiton took 20 points for the win, with Exeter to come next week

Honiton U14's vs Clyst Hydon U14's 24/6/10

Honiton's U14's visited Clyst Hydon and got back to winning ways after the previous loss to Whimble.

Honiton captain Ollie fuller won the toss and elected to bat, he helped himself to 18 as Honiton scored at a good rate, Clyst's opening bowlers chipped in with 3 early wickets to keep things even from the first 10 overs.

Honiton's Keiran Sluman changed things when he came into bat and hit a quick fire 40, including one 6 to the furthest part of the ground, Ben Broom (11no) and Harry Wright (10no) hit quick runs from the last 3 overs as the visitors posted a very useful 127 for 7.

George Clegg picked up 2 for 16 from his overs and was the stand out bowler for the home side.

Clyst Hydon's reply got off to a bad start with Harry Wright doing the early-damage with figures of 3-2-2-2.

Ryan Dunn then got in on the act with 3 for 29 as the home side lost wickets at regular intervals, Ewan East (21) was the only player to put up any resistance as they finished all out for 67.

Bowls round-up

Honiton and Seaton joint second in table

AXMINSTER with David Harris ANOTHER very mixed fortnight with only two victories out of the six matches played! We missed out on two away fixtures with neither Taunton Deane nor Hemyock able to raise teams - very disappointing indeed.

In the friendlies played we beat Dunkeswell at home (82-69) with an excellent performance from June Teale, Lilian Lovatt, Pam Hunter, and Brian Clark (32-8) but lost the next three.

First at home to Wrington (63-81) with only Les Monk, June Teale, Ann Clayton, and Brian Clark managing a win (16-14), next a narrow defeat at home to Donyatt in a triples match (45-50) despite the great efforts of Marion Harris, Frank Lintott, and Margaret Crompton (27-8), and finally away at Charmouth where we were well beaten in another triples match (39-69) where our best rink was Lilian Lovatt, Pam Clark, and Margaret Crompton who managed to draw (13-13).

Special mention to Donyatt captain Alf Soane who has made a wonderful recovery from a serious injury - not only was it good to see him looking so well but he completely dominated his rink!

In the Over 60s Devon League we did well to win on grass at St.Thomas (Exeter) by 37 to 35 shots with William Cook, David Harris, and Roger Legg winning (19-15), but lost another close game at home to Pines(Exeter) by 30 to 34 shots with William Cook, David Harris, and Frank Bridge our winning rink (17-10).

FENITON with Roger Smith ON Tuesday the Club entertained the touring side, Hemel Hempstead.

The match was bathed in glorious sunshine. Feniton secured a convincing victory by 132-92.

The winning rinks were John Dibble, Eddie Cox, Avril Coyne and Lyn Eveleigh 20-12, Colin Cheesley, Martin Mitchell, Roger Smith and Sue Kury 19-14, Anne Edwards, Joyce Lovell, Martyn Eveleigh and Don Coyne 36-9, Anita Pritchard, Ted Goodenough, George Skinner and Don Conbeer 20-19 and Frank Jones, Ruth Clarke, Janice Mitchell and Mike Chipperfield 21-17.

The men's team at last managed a win in the County Trophy competition, all be it by one point, against Ottery St. Mary thereby collecting 9 points. The score was 73-72 with Feniton winning two rinks and drawing a third. The winning rinks were Robin Cooke, Phil Spreadbury, Roger Smith and Kevin Lovering 19-16, Allan Godfrey, Mike Chipperfield, Roger Clarke and Dick Arundell 25-13.

The over 60s men's triples teams had mixed fortunes. The A team lost on both rinks away at Okehampton. However, the B team were involved in an exciting tie away against Sidmouth C team, the score was 30-30. The winning rink was John Dibble, Tony Young and Les Ley 19-16.

The mixed team played away at Chardstock in a four rink match and lost by 60-75, despite winning two rinks and drawing the third.

The winning rinks were Ruth Clarke, Martyn Eveleigh and Richard North 20-17 and Anita Pritchard, George Skinner and Tony Young 13-12.

SEATON with Edward Harden SEATON won by 97 shots to 86 in a five rink away game against Taunton on Tuesday, June 22nd. Top rink was Ian Manchester, Nancy Collins, Michael Follenfant and Angie Mayhew.

At home on June 25th we beat Donyatt in a four rink match by 89 shots to 70. Top rink was Maria Johnson, Fred Dart, Shirley Fewtrell and Peter Greenwood.

In a re-arranged Over Sixties Triples League game on June 21st against Tiverton Borough, Seaton won an exciting match by a mere two shots 33 shots to 31. Each triple won by one shot and the match being decided by the last bowl played by skip Ron Rowley.

Seaton beat Budleigh Salterton in the County Trophy on 22 June by 78 shots to 70. Winning three rinks to one.

We recorded another win in the Over Sixties Triples League against Belmont B by 37 shots to 21. Top triple was Jeremy Allison, Keith Miles and Ivor Steer.

In the County Fours Ron Rowley, Roy Carnell, Bob Rutter and Phil Crichard are successfully through to the last 16. Their next game is in early July when we hope to learn that they will reach the last eight.

HONITON with Tony Broughton ON Tuesday we entertained a side from Hemel Hempstead and managed to win 140-112. Our top rink that day was Brenda Harris, Tony Trembeth, Tony Tooley and Ann Hillyear at 36-11.

Our efforts in the Wednesday Over 60s League were mixed.

The A side lost one and won one away to North Tawton A but lost the match, so only two points. This has dropped them from first to fourth in the Division Four table but only four points behind the leaders.

The B side was beaten away by Budleigh A on both rinks so no points. They now stand second from bottom in Division Three, and Budleigh remain fourth from bottom. This does not sound good, if we can't beat the fourth from bottom what about the six above them.

The win one lose one plan of the C side continued when they went away to face Madeira B. Both teams were 10-0 down at one stage, one came back to win 26-11, well done, the other did well to lose by one shot at 17-18.

The six points gained keeps them top of Division Two but only by two.

Friday the side went to Tiverton West End with four rinks and got a bit of a spanking, losing all four with an overall loss 64-103.

Saturday the Tiverton Park club came to Honiton and we fared a little better winning two and losing two, with the final result 82-72. The top rink was Liam and Tracy Crawford, Ted Cox and Eddie Sharman at 23-12.

Liam and his mother, Tracy, have both joined us this season.

Sunday another leg of the Two Counties League was played at home against Ottery St Mary. We won two rinks, drew on one and lost the other but won the overall match. This gives us another eight and a half points.

After last week's County Trophy success I can tell you that we lie joint second on points with Seaton in the table but they go ahead with plus 78 shots to our plus 54. Madeira are top and look set to win our group.

We have one more match to play this week, but Madeira should go through to play the winners of the other seven groups in the knock out stages. This eventually gives us the County's Champion Club.

CHARDSTOCK

ON Thursday, June 24th Chardstock entertained Feniton in a four rink mixed triples match. Chardstock won on one rink, drew on one rink, but lost on the remaining two rinks.

Despite this, Chardstock won an entertaining match overall by 75 - 60 shots. A Callagan, D Emery, J Tucker (Skip) won 29-10, R Wines, T Bird S Jeffery (Skip) lost 12-13, A Sebright, A Day, M Davenport (Skip) drew 17-17, B Albon, M Sturley, K Wakelin(Skip) lost 17-20.

Budleigh Salterton were the visitors on Friday 25th June in a five rink mixed triples match.

In a very close game on every rink, and Chardstock winning on three rinks, Budleigh scraped through to win by two shots overall 79-81 shots. A Sebright, M Rogers, M Toms (Skip) won 15-14, T Bird, D Emery, A Day (Skip) lost 15-21, R Wines, G Bodily, K Wakelin (Skip) won 19-16, P Potter, J Rolph, B Sluman (Skip) lost 13-17, A Callagan, J Tucker, S Jeffery (Skip) won 17-13.

The ladies have recently played and won against Sidmouth (away) winning by 38-32 shots, Yeovil (away) losing by 27-45 shots, and South Petherton (home) winning by 47-29 shots.

On Sunday, June 27th, club members met to compete for the Anniversary Cup in a four rink pairs round robin match.

The eventual winners were R. Wines and K. Wakelin with P. Potter and M. Rogers as runners up. The afternoon concluded with tea in the club pavilion.

Professional player coach appointed at Honiton RFC

Training to commence on July 1st

by Keith Jenkin

AT its annual general meeting that took place on Friday last, the Honiton Rugby Club took what may well prove to be a decisive step in the club's development when they appointed a professional player coach after what was, for them, a less than cohesive season in 2009/2010.

The reasons for the last term being sporadic to say the least, were many and various. The weather was rather unkind, with a number of games having to be postponed owing to frozen grounds. The make-up of the Devon league too was less than helpful, with the result that the Allhallows side played little testing rugby after the Christmas break and their spring was littered with withdrawals, concessions and very easy victories.

In addition to these trials and tribulations, they had to change coaches mid term. Fortunately all worked out well for them in the end and they gained promotion to the Cornwall & Devon League after a play-off that they won with some ease.

From what I have seen and know, there is considerable emerging talent in the club, in addition to the more established players, and Glenn Channing, whom I know as a useful out half for the Sidmouth club, has been appointed to develop and mould these abilities into an effective unit.

Of course a coach, however talented, can do no more than "dress 'em up and send 'em out", and it will be down to the players to execute his game plans on the field.

To help him in this will be captain Brendan Findlay, a second row forward who invariably talks good rugby sense, certainly about matters of the eight, and vice captain and utility back, Nick Guilbert.

Obviously stern challenges lie ahead for the Honiton Club, at both first and second team level; and to help meet these Tom Churchward has been appointed to the post of second team captain, with Jason Fahy as his vice. The third side, who did not play too many games for one reason or another last season, are led by Gareth Keep.

With the season just eight weeks away, training will commence on Thursday July 1st at 7pm, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays thereafter and let us hope that these pre-season exertions will be a prelude to a successful league campaign for the first squad and that the second side will prove to be a force in their division of the second fifteen merit table.

I do sense an air of quiet excitement around the Honiton Club and will be most interested to see if they can make a real mark in the higher division. I think that they might well do just that.
